

Thanks be to God, little by little, I met friends. I began working. My first job was in a cafeteria. It was hard for me because I had to learn the names of the food. They gave me the cashier, the cash register. I said,

“excuse me, this is my first time I use this machine.”

The manager said to me,

“you know, when start working that was my first time I see this machine. The same as like you and I don’t know how to run it. I don’t know how to work with it. So, You can do it. Just stay here.”

It was a cafeteria at Duke University and there were a lot students saying “(nonsense words)”.

I said, “excuse me, you want spaghetti and meatballs?”

He said, “NO!”.

I said “explain that..”.

I knew where the place for

“spaghetti and meatballs”

on the TV screen. Every answer was

“spaghetti and meatballs”

وبشكر الله مع الوقت تعرفت على أصدقاء.
بدأت أشتغل. أشتغلت في كافيتيريا في
البداية. كان صعبا علي أن أتعلم أسماء
الأكلات. فسلموني صندوق الحساب. فقلت

"excuse me, this is my first time I use this machine."

المدير قال لي

“you know, when start working that was my first time I see this machine.

The same as like you and I don’t know how to run it. I don’t know how to work with it. So, You can do it.

كانت كافيتيريا في جامعة "دوك". كان
هناك كثير من الطلاب يقولون كلمات غير
مفهومة لي.

قلت لاحد الطلاب: " عفوا، تريد المعكرونة
مع كرات اللحم؟"

صاح "لا!"

قلت " سامحني. اشرح لي ماذا تريد"

كنت اعرف اين زر المعكرونة واللحم على
شاشة صندوقي ولذلك كل طلبات الطلاب
بالنسبة لي كانت معكرونة ولحم.

Little by little, I learned and afterwards I had the opportunity for a new job that I was very happy in. I loved to work in this place and I loved the experience from it. I was very happy with it.

بعد ايام قليلة تعلمت وبعدها سنحت لي
الفرصة لاعمل في مجال جديد احببته كثيرا.
عملت في شركة كبيرة واستمتعت بالخبرة
التي اكتسبتها في هذا المكان. كنت سعيدا
جدا بهذا الشيء.
