

2015 ANNUAL SCIENTIFIC SESSION

February 13-14, 2015 • Sheraton Imperial Hotel • Durham, NC

This continuing medical education activity is sponsored by the American College of Physicians

2015 ANNUAL SCIENTIFIC SESSION

NC Chapter, American College of Physicians

Activity Description and Target Audience

This meeting is designed for general internists, subspecialty internists, family physicians, fellows in subspecialty training, allied health practitioners, residents, and medical students interested in internal medicine. The purpose is to improve diagnosis and treatment skills and provide updates on inpatient and outpatient medicine. This is the only forum for internal medicine physicians in the state to convene, confer with colleagues, and update knowledge and skills!

Educational Objectives

At the conclusion of this educational activity, participants should be able to:

- Apply updated knowledge of internal medicine to clinical practice;
- Improve clinical practice by incorporating major new developments in subspecialty medicine;
- Understand recent advances in internal medicine;
- Diagnose and manage obesity and anticoagulation.

Accreditation

The American College of Physicians (ACP) is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

Credit

The American College of Physicians designates this live activity for a maximum of 8.25 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)<sup>TM</sup>. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Disclosure

The American College of Physicians adheres to ACCME Essential Areas and policies regarding industry support of continuing medical education. Commercial support for the program and faculty relationships within the industry will be disclosed at the activity. Speakers will also state when off-label or experimental drugs or devices are incorporated in their presentations.

Americans with Disabilities Act

The NC,ACP is fully committed to the principle of equal educational opportunities for all individuals and does not discriminate on the basis of any characteristics protected by federal or state law. If you require any of the auxiliary aids or services identified in the Americans with Disabilities Act in order to participate in this conference, please call the NC,ACP at (919) 833-3836 no later than ten business days before the date of the activity.

Here's what your colleagues said about the 2014 Annual Scientific Session:

Meeting Highlights

Program Co-chairs Dawn Brezina, MD, FACP, and Sharon Rubin, MD, FACP, have assembled an outstanding group of speakers who will address current topics of interest.

- New this year: A special dual-track, hospital medicine and outpatient medicine session will be offered Friday afternoon;
- Get your Maintenance of Certification questions answered;
- See the latest from the training programs at the Residents and Students Poster Competition;
- Hear from former Chapter Governor and recently retired UNC Professor of Internal Medicine James Bryan, II, MD, MACP, during the Governor's Awards Dinner, at which the 2015 Laureate and Volunteerism and Community Service Awards will be presented;
- Residents, fellows and students and their guests can socialize at their own after-dinner Cocktail Hour;
- Back by popular demand, the training programs will compete in a Doctor's Dilemma; all attendees can see the exciting finals!;
- Select your choice of special interest group lunch roundtables;
- Enjoy breakfast and breaks in the exhibit area which will feature products and services of interest to physicians and their practices.

The attire is business casual for the meeting and social events.

Meeting Registration

The registration fee for ACP member physicians is $175. The fee for non-member physicians is $250, and for allied health professionals fees are $125-$150. Emeritus or retired members, residents and medical students may attend free of charge. Registration fees include the two days of meeting sessions, the Friday evening reception, continental breakfast, lunch and breaks, as well as the CME certificate and course syllabus. The fee for dinner, which includes 0.75 hour of CME credit, has been reduced this year to $40 for registered physicians and allied health professionals and their guests, and $25 for registered residents and students and their guests. You may register securely online at <https://www.123signup.com/event?id=yvxqh>, or complete the form in this brochure and return it via fax or mail prior to January 30. After January 30, registration fees will increase.

Deadline / Registration Cancellation

Please note that refunds of registration fees will not be made after Friday, February 6. Refunds, less $25, will be made for cancellations received prior to that date.
