

*The Center for French and Francophone Studies
The Atlantic Studies Working Group
And the Franklin Humanities Institute*

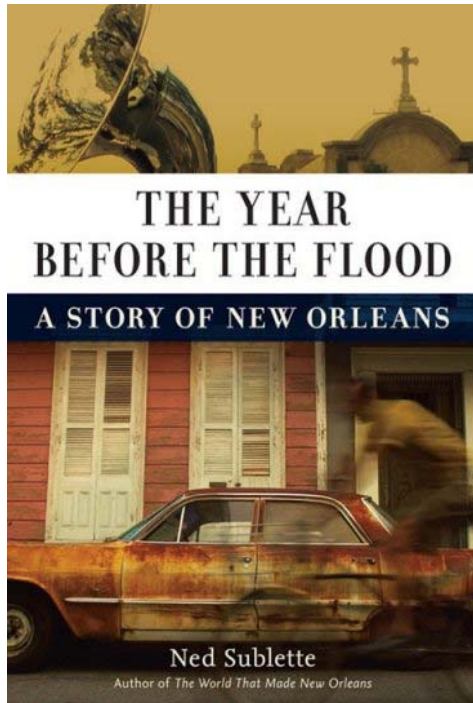

present

Ned Sublette

At the REGULATOR BOOKSHOP, NINTH STREET
FEBRUARY 10, 2010, 7 p.m.

A Concert and Reading
on
The Year Before the Flood: A Story of New Orleans

Ned Sublette is a musician, writer, and producer. He is the author of Cuba and Its' Music and The World That Made New Orleans. In his talk, he will discuss his new book, and the way it tells the story of New Orleans and Katrina through a broader history of the culture and history of Louisiana.