COLLOQUIUM AGENDA

Preventing Alzheimer’s Disease:
Opportunities & Challenges in Scientific Discovery and Health Care

June 2, 2017
8:00AM- 12:30PM
Location: Duke Nursing School – Room 1014

8:00-8:30 Continental Breakfast

8:30- 8:45 Welcome & Remembrance of Allen Roses
Kathleen A. Welsh-Bohmer PhD

8:45-9:15 KEY-NOTE: Preventing Alzheimer’s Disease: Opportunities & Challenges
Eric Reiman, MD

9:20- 10:00 A Fast Pace to AD Discovery: Duke’s Contributions in AD Prevention Science

9:20 Michael Lutz PhD
Bridging genes, cells, mice, lemurs and people to prevent AD

9:30 Carol Colton PhD
Alzheimer’s and “Parasite Rex”... hiding from destruction

9:40 Heather Whitson MD
Can Cognitive Stress Tests Detect Early Alzheimer’s Disease?

9:50 Peter Larson PhD
The double-edged sword: human evolution and the origin of neurodegenerative disease

10:00- 10:20 Questions and Answers

Break

10:45- 11:20 Key Note Panel- Murali Doraiswamy (moderator)

10:25-11:00 Prevention of Alzheimer’s – Health Policy Considerations
Rob Califf MD

11:05-11-20 Prevention of Alzheimer’s- Public impact
George Vradenburg

11:25- 12:15 Panel Discussion
Rob Califf, Murali Doraiswamy, Eric Reiman, & George Vradenburg

12:15 Final comments & Adjourn