

2025 Duke University Faith, Holiness, and Human Flourishing Workshop

Given increased interest in the topic of “Human Flourishing” (a state of happiness/well-being, meaning and purpose, virtue/morality, close social relationships, mental/physical health, & financial/material stability) and the narrow pathway that leads to it, we will be holding a full-day online workshop on Faith, Holiness, and Human Flourishing. This 2-part workshop is designed for mental health professionals (counselors, psychologists, pastoral counselors), chaplains (healthcare, VA, and active-duty military), healthcare professionals (physicians, nurses, social workers, rehabilitation therapists, etc.), community clergy, students of every type (high school, undergraduate, graduate, etc.), and anyone else interested in learning skills and tools for maximizing human flourishing at home, in social relationships, and in work or school settings. This 8-hour online workshop via Zoom is being held on Saturday, April 26 (Part 1), and Saturday, June 7, 2025 (Part 2).
