

Teaching the APP Teachers

SAVE THE DATE

Friday, November 19, 2021

Duke Primary Care and Duke AHEAD sponsors

Location: Virtual, via Zoom

Time: 8-noon

All educators who teach in the outpatient setting, but there will be extra emphasis upon clinician-educators from the Duke Physician Assistant and Nurse Practitioner Programs.

This seminar is open to ALL providers, and is not just restricted to APP Providers.

To register, please sign-up here: Teaching the APP Teacher

Presentations and Discussions

National and Local Overview of Critical Importance of APP Providers

Dr. Mitch Heflin

Best Methods for how to evaluate and promote critical thinking in our learners.

Melinda Blazer MHS, PA-C, Director of Clinical Education for Duke PA Program

How to help challenging learners, and what to do when an encounter then becomes challenging.

Ann Derouin DNP, APRN, CPNP, FAANP, Clinical Professor and Faculty Lead for Duke NP program

Strategies for how to provide timely, specific feedback that can be positive but also corrective if indicated.

Nick Hudak, MSE, MPAS, PA-C, Faculty Clinical Coordinator for Duke PA Program

Roundtable discussion about best practices for how to stay on time, and still engage learners in the clinical experience.

Hosted by Dr. Bruce Peyser, with guest panel to include:

Jacob Lagomarcino, PA-C Priscila Tomlin, NP-C, RN, Leanne Owens, PA-C, and Melissa Fike FNP-C