Name of Potential Opportunity: University Collaboration Office Stakeholder Mapping and Storytelling Internship

Name and titles of potential supervisor/s (and link to external-facing RTI expert page, if available):
Name: Jacqueline Olich, PhD
Title: Vice President, University Collaborations

Overview: (2-4 sentences)
Work with Vice President for University Collaborations to research, understand, analyze and map stakeholder perspectives. Produce short, narrative-driven analyses of collaborative projects

Preferred skills: (including foreign languages, programming languages, etc.)
Curiosity.
Time and project (including a dissertation project) management.
Research acumen for collecting and making sense of information—including oral history.
Writing.
Narrative development and storytelling.
Understanding of organizational and institutional cultures.

Number or Interns: 1