

REQUEST FOR RESUMES

The Office of the General Counsel, Department of Defense (DoD), is reviewing the resume file for potential candidates for a number of Schedule A, Excepted Service, attorney positions that are under the supervision of the Deputy General Counsel (Intelligence) and support the intelligence and security practice areas. Individuals interested in being considered are invited to review the notice at <https://ogc.osd.mil/Careers/>. This is not a vacancy announcement.

The office is seeking candidates with expertise relevant to the following roles:

- Intelligence Oversight. Provides legal support to the Assistant to the Secretary of Defense for Intelligence Oversight; participates in intelligence oversight inspections; advises on intelligence law, regulation, and policy; and reviews legislative proposals and communications with Congress on intelligence oversight issues.
- Counternarcotics and Law Enforcement. Legal advice and services related to DoD's (including the National Guard) counterdrug and related support to civilian law enforcement agencies. Provides legal advice and support related to the oversight and management of DoD law enforcement activities, including authorities, training, and standards.
- Sensitive Activities. Provides legal advice and services concerning U.S. law and international law related to military operations, intelligence activities, counterintelligence operations, cyberspace operations, information operations, security classification policies, and special access programs.
- Counterintelligence and Security. Provides legal advice and services concerning personnel security and vetting policy, investigations and appeals policy, law enforcement policy, detainee litigation, physical security and industrial security policy, critical technology protection and insider threat programs, and counterintelligence policy.