

BIOGRAPHY: CPT Hayley J. Boyd

Captain Hayley Boyd is a U.S. Army Judge Advocate currently serving as the Military Justice Advisor for the 1st Brigade Combat Team, 82d Airborne Division at Fort Bragg, North Carolina. Originally from Lake Forest, California, Captain Boyd graduated from the University of California, San Diego with a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science. After graduating from Georgetown University Law Center, she commissioned as a Judge Advocate. The 82d Airborne Division is CPT Boyd's first duty station, and she served as an administrative law attorney and operational law attorney before serving at 1BCT. CPT Boyd deployed with the Division element during the January 2020 IRF activation, and in August 2021, deployed to Kabul, Afghanistan as part of the non-combatant evacuation of 120,000+ U.S. and Afghan citizens from the Hamid Karzai International Airport.