

Ben Kastan

Senior Counsel, Data Protection and Cybersecurity Director, Cyber Legal Visa, Inc.

Ben Kastan is Director, Cyber Legal, and Senior Counsel for Data Protection and Cybersecurity at Visa, where he advises on the full breadth of global cybersecurity law issues, including cybersecurity regulatory compliance, incident response and reporting, contracts, cyber threat information sharing, security implications of artificial intelligence, as well as other cybersecurity and data protection matters around the world.

Before joining Visa, Ben served eight and a half years with the National Security Agency (NSA), most recently as Associate General Counsel for Cybersecurity, leading NSA's Cybersecurity Law Practice Group. Throughout his time at NSA, Ben worked on a wide range of intelligence and cyber operations issues, including cyber threat intelligence, on-net operations, cryptography, industry engagement, and information sharing with government and industry partners.

Prior to NSA, Ben clerked for the Honorable Donna Stroud on the North Carolina Court of Appeals. He received his J.D. and LL.M. in International and Comparative Law from Duke University School of Law and his A.B. in International and Area Studies from Washington University in St. Louis.
