Professional MEMtality

Practicing the five principles with a professional state of mind

MARCH 2021

Congratulations to these MEM students for being outstanding examples of professionalism!*

Joanne Xiao: Communication

"...Her written and verbal communication has been clear, concise, and effective. Joanne truly demonstrates this professional principle in full capacity!"

Pratik Rath: Teamwork

"Pratik has been a proactive, responsible, inspiring and engaging leader... He shows up, comes prepared and takes action to ensure the success of his team."

Amanda Fernandes: Critical Thinking

"...During in-class group activities, Amanda shares her ideas openly with peers and helps her team reach well thought-out technical alternatives and recommend solutions."

Steve Reynolds: Humanness

"Steve is one of our Navy Nuclear MEM Online students. When an incoming Navy Nuclear student had questions about balancing military service and school, Steve gave thorough, thoughtful responses."
