18 - Open-Ended QuestionsWhat parts of the class were most useful for you? Why?

Response Rate 3/10 (30%)

- Thinking about my past work experiences and reflecting on them with the skills that I gained during the MEM program.
- The scheduling and assignments over time were the most useful. Dr. Murray also required us to submit our papers for review with Duke's writing consultants, which was incredibly helpful.
- The provided document samples were helpful in understanding deliverable expectations.

19 - What parts of the class were least useful for you? Why?

Response Rate 1/10 (10%)

- N/A

20 - Please add any additional comments or suggestions for improving the learning experience in this course.

Response Rate 2/10 (20%)

- It would be helpful to get the deliverables and schedule up front
- My only suggestion would be that the course span longer than just one semester. Though I'm highly interested in writing about my professional work and informing others of its intricacies, the deliverable deadlines conflicted with my work demands during the semester (an unexpected uptick in workload during this time of year). I would've loved to have been enrolled during my last YEAR of the program, in order to work on and tweak over time a better report and presentation that I feel encompasses so much information. I wouldn't have minded have MORE requirements (longer report, more in-depth presentation, etc.) in return for more time to manage the information and deliverable dates.
